

“ I love to see members’ confidence grow as they lose weight. It reminds me of me. ”

Christine Mitchell, Leader

It changed my life, now it’s your turn

Leaders

Opportunities Nationwide*

You’ve changed your life by reaching your weight loss goal. Now it’s time to pass that amazing feeling on by becoming a Weight Watchers Leader. It’s a unique role where you can help people achieve success and share in their happiness – and we can offer some great prospects too.

You can run as many or as few meetings as you like, so this is your perfect career whether you want to work full-time, have family commitments or have another job. And as one of our passionate experts, you can expect comprehensive support and the chance to build your future with a world-famous brand that operates in more than 30 countries.

But becoming a Leader isn’t just about boosting other members’ weight loss. It’s a brilliant way to maintain your own target weight by working for the company that got you there. After all, you’re a fantastic advertisement for Weight Watchers!
